CAUSE

The offender and his wife, Melissa Hernandez-Wilson, who is also under a term of supervised release, relocated to Ypsilanti, Michigan, on September 1, 2010, in an effort to have a family support system with his family. They returned to El Paso, Texas, on October 12, 2010, due to the offender's wife not ingesting her medication for her Bi-Polar disorder and depression which caused her to become unstable. Wilson thought it best for them to return to El Paso, Texas. However, they have no residence in El Paso, and Wilson is unemployed. Based on this issue, it is respectfully recommended that Wilson's conditions be modified to have him placed at Dismas Charities for a period up to 120 days so that the offender and his wife can save money to afford their own residence. If an alternative residential opportunity becomes available, Wilson will be allowed to leave Dismas.

On October 12, 2010, the Defendant waived his statutory rights to a hearing to extend the conditions of supervised release by endorsing the PROB 49, Waiver of Hearing to Modify Conditions of Probation/Supervised Release or Extend Term of Supervision.

Respectfully submitted,

Approved by,

Antonio Candelaria, Jr.
U.S. Probation Officer
